

FOREWORD

I am very pleased to see that the Volume 24, Number 3 of IJCIM includes selected papers as proof of our ongoing commitment to serve the community of researchers. We will continue to collaborate to making our journal better. Please carefully look at guidelines about paper format at www.ijcim.th.org and send your papers on topics of current interest in computer sciences, Internet technologies and management for the upcoming issues to me (charmonman@gmail.com). I will get your paper reviewed by experts in your field. If the initial response is favorable, I will request you to submit your camera-ready final paper as soon as possible for publication in the next edition of IJCIM.

The first paper titled “Legal Aspects of Sale through Internet Media: The Study Law Internet and Electronic Transaction No.11 of 2008” is written by Wiwik Pratiwi from Indonesia. This paper focused on the effective and benefit of Law No.11 of 2008 on the Internet and Electronic Transaction (UUITE) to regulate the internet selling in Indonesia.

The second paper titled “A Suitable B2C E-Commerce Model for Elderly Thai People” is written by Nattavee Utakrit from Thailand. This paper presented a suitable B2C e-Commerce model that directly associated between the entrepreneurs and the consumers through the internet by focusing on elderly group.

The third paper titled “The Interest in the Use of E-Filing for Personal Taxpayers” is written by Trisni Suryarini, Dani Puspitasari, and Linda Agustina from Indonesia. This paper proposed the analysis of influence of performance expectancy, volunteerism, speed, security, and confidentiality on the interest of in e-filing use.

The fourth paper titled “The Development of Spelling abilities of Prathomsuksa 2 Students Using CIRC Technique Integrated with Exercise” is written by Kamoltip Srinoom and Busaba Buasomboon from Thailand. This paper mainly focused on the comparison of the ability of spelling of Prathomsuksa 2 students between pre-test and post-test by applying cooperative CIRC technique integrated with exercise to measure.

The fifth paper titled “Improving Business Performance through Creative Entrepreneur, Superior Business and Entrepreneurial Networks” is written by Murwatiningsih, Rini Setyo Witiastuti, and Nina Oktarina from Indonesia. This paper proposed the analysis and test result of the effect of creative entrepreneur, superior business, and entrepreneurial networks to the business performance on micro-small and medium-convection enterprises in Central Java, Indonesia.

The sixth paper titled “The Development of Teaching Model of Basic Computer Course for Undergraduate Students in Faculty of Education at Si Ayutthaya Rajabhat University Group” is written by Kamthorn Kwunsanaye, Usa Kongthong, Boonrueng Srihaeran, and Angkana Karanyathikul from Thailand. This paper proposed the teaching model of basic computer course for undergraduate students for Si Ayutthaya Rajabhat University Group together with the examination of the developed model.

The seventh paper titled “Implementation of Records Management in Schools to Improve the Quality of Service at SMA 11 Semarang” is written by Nina Oktarina, Hengky Pramusinto, and Joko Widodo from Indonesia. This paper presented the implementation of the records management including the associated components and the constraints of the recording management in order to improve the service quality of schools in SMA 11 Semarang, Indonesia.

The eighth paper titled “The Knowledge Measurement Model Provided to the ASEAN Economic Community” is written by Pornpawee Worasatepongsa and Chanidapa Deesukanan from Thailand. This paper proposed the analysis of the proficiency knowledge preparation step readiness for the member country of ASEAN Economic Community.

The ninth paper titled “A Comparative Study of People-to-People Recommender Algorithms in Hybrid Method” is written by Elizabeth Irene Yuwono and Nehemia Sugianto from Indonesia. This paper discussed the comparison between hybrid algorithms in people-to-people recommendation on social media interaction.

The tenth paper titled “The Relationships between of Knowledge, Skill, Values, Ethics, and Attitudes on Competencies of Certified Public Accountants in Thailand” is written by Chalida Linjee and Kanokmani Homkaew from Thailand. This paper sourced out the relationships between knowledge, skills, values, and attitudes towards ethics auditor performance in Bangkok and perimeter (Nearby area), in Thailand.

The eleventh paper titled “Comparison of Head Movement Recognition Algorithms in Immersive Virtual Reality Using Educative Mobile Application” is written by Nehemia Sugianto and Elizabeth Irene Yuwono from Indonesia. This paper focused on the comparison of five basic head movements recognition algorithms in a simple educative mobile application by using Accelerometer sensor and RGB camera in Kinect to capture the movements.

The twelfth paper titled “A Frame Quality Improvement before Video Shot Boundary Detection” is written by Songpon Nakharacruangsak, Maleerat Sodanil, and Supot Nitsuwat from Thailand. This paper presented the usefulness of video shot boundary detection and the efficient of a frame quality improvement.

The thirteenth paper titled “Determinants of Fraud Based on Islamic Paradigm: Case Study in Islamic Financial Services Cooperatives” is written by Kusumantoro, Ahmad Nurkhin, Hasan Mukhibad, and Kiswanto from Indonesia. This paper examined the determinants of fraud in Islamic Financial Services Cooperatives based on Islamic paradigm by conducting in BMT ANDA Salatiga, Central Java, Indonesia.

The fourteenth paper titled “Application of Business Model Theories on the Improvement of Government Organization Structure: Case Study of Information and Space Technology Department” is written by Thanyalak Prasertwit, Wilaiporn Laohakosol, Somchai Ratanakomut, and Chanchai Bunchapattanasakda from Thailand. This paper is the qualitative research conducted to analyze environment and problem, and to propose direction to develop the defense information and space technology department’s strategic management and organization structure.

The fifteenth paper titled “The Development of a Good Governance Process to Raise the ability to Conserve Native Varieties of Durian in Pak Kret, Nonthaburi” is written by Nittaya Sintao from Thailand. This paper belonged to the development of Good Governance in conservative of native durian variety and proposed to study factors which effect to level of capacity in management system of durian native conservative in Pak Kret District, Nonthaburi Province of Thailand.

The sixteenth paper titled “The Development of Ecological Industrial Town of Ladkrabang Industrial Estate” is written by Montana Kangkan from Thailand. This paper presented about the approach for Ecological Industrial Town development in Ladkrabang Industrial Estate as well as to present the characteristics and problems of Ecological Industrial Town development.

The seventeenth paper titled “Achievement of Production Credit Group that Affect Quality of Life” is written by Sakda Silapapisan from Thailand. This paper presented the analysis of the factors that affect the achievement of the production credit group, and the impact of the achievement of the production credit group to produce the quality of life of their member by conducting with those who responsible to run the production credit group activities.

The eighteenth paper titled “Perceptions of Employees towards Thai Manager’s Management Style” is written by Salinee Chaiwattanaporn and Chanchai Banchapattanasakda from Thailand. This paper proposed the perceptions of employees concerning the Thai style of top managers in Thailand based on Hofstede’s 5 cultural dimension concept.

The nineteenth paper titled “A Case Study on Implement Software Development Using Hybrid ISX” is written by Surapun Penchamrueh, Nattavee Utakrit, and Nalinpat Porrawatprevakorn from Thailand. This paper reviewed about how to create success software project management together with the influencing factors of successful software development projects, and proposed the development of a software framework with a hybrid method approach comprising of ISO 9001, SCRUM, and XP (Hybrid ISX).

The twentieth paper titled “The Decision Support System for Health Check Booking Based on Semantic Model” is written by Sooksawaddee Nattawuttisit from Thailand. This paper presented the usefulness of the decision support system, and to proposed the development of a decision support system for health check booking based on semantic model to improve health and health care services.

The twenty-first paper titled “The Development of Academic Counseling to MPA Student, Stamford International University” is written by Suchart Adulbutra, Pachra Sartngern, and Keytapark Virat from Thailand. This paper is the qualitative findings by first to review the attributes and problems of academic counseling to MPA students, and to propose the problem solving process in academic counseling to MPA students.

The twenty-second paper titled “Electronic Financial Behavior Profile for Improving SMEs Financial Literacy in Semarang” is written by Anindya Ardiansari, Dwi Cahyaningdyah, and Achmad Slamet from Indonesia. This paper presented about the trend and important of SMEs for Indonesia economy particularly in the city of Semarang, and to proposed the development of financial behavior to improve financial literacy among the SMEs in the city of Semarang, Indonesia.

(Prof. Dr. Srisakdi Charmonman)
Senior Editor-in-Chief of IJCIM
Srisakdi Charmonman Institute,
Siam Technology College